Her wedded life was a dream of bliss—with one tiny exception. She wanted another man! She knew him, too—an old flame—and she took the necessary steps. But hubby's name was Palayicini, and "twin soul" Jimmy was a "heavy lover" on the scales only. Oodles of laughs and something happening every minute!

NATIONAL STOCK YARDS SELLS 150 HORSES

SCOOBA, Miss., Oct. 15. (Sp.)—One of the largest stock auction sales has ever been held here took place Monday, when 150 horses were sold to the highest bidders in Geiger, Ala. Ten miles east of Scooba, the year ago National Stock Yards company, of East St. Louis, bought a large tract of 100 acres land around Geiger for the purpose of farming. The largest stock of farming implements ever bought in this section was purchased by this firm and farming began on an extensive scale. The crop year was bad, however, and as a result the company decided to sell all of its lands, including implements and stock. The horses brought from $40 to $250. The sale was in the hands of Oscar Cobb, of Geiger.

YAZOO'S SUGAR SUPPLY RUNS EXTREMELY LOW

YAZOO CITY, Miss., Oct. 15. (Sp.)—The sugar supply in Yazoo City has run extremely low for several weeks, and every effort on the part of local merchants to secure a supply of a good grade has failed. The situation is expected to be relieved in the near future. According to some of the retail dealers throughout this section of the state there is a shortage of sugar in storage warehouses, but the refiners and others are holding the supply for higher prices. Then too, tremendous quantities of sugar are being shipped out of the country, which helps to create a shortage.

REVIVAL HOLDS CORINTH IN CLOSEST ATTENTION

CORINTH, Miss., Oct. 15. (Sp.)—There is an increasing interest here in the revival that is being conducted at the First Methodist church by J. O. Hanes, evangelist.
